These attendants wear a blue uniform trimmed with bright red, and a red cap. They are perfectly reliable, and any passenger who is unfamiliar with the surroundings of Grand Central Station, may call on them for advice or aid, with confidence.

They all speak English, and among them are those who also speak German, French, Italian, Danish and Spanish, and the Foreigner will be as readily served as the American.

To the patrons of the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., the service of these attendants is entirely FREE.
